QUESTIONS FOR ORAL ANSWER*

- *1. Mr Murali Pillai: To ask the Minister for Finance with regard to the spike in pump fuel prices attributable to Russia's invasion of Ukraine, the implementation of the carbon tax system and the push towards adoption of electric vehicles, whether the Ministry will be prepared to reduce or provide rebates to the petrol duty imposed on motorists or provide road tax rebates to motorists in the short-, mid- or long-term.
- *2. Mr Gan Thiam Poh: To ask the Minister for Finance whether the Government will consider providing all households with ad hoc monthly utility rebates to cushion the inflationary pressure arising from increasing oil prices and supply chain disruptions.
- *3. Ms Mariam Jaafar: To ask the Minister for Finance in light of the sharp rise in petrol prices, whether the Government will consider a temporary reduction in the petrol excise taxes.
- *4. Dr Lim Wee Kiak: To ask the Minister for Finance (a) what intervention measures will the Ministry be prepared to take if oil prices continue to spiral as a result of a prolonged Russia-Ukraine crisis; and (b) whether the Government will look into temporarily lowering the petrol duty to keep the cost of public transport and other services with a heavy reliance on transport affordable for lower-income groups.
- *5. Mr Xie Yao Quan: To ask the Minister for Finance whether the Government will consider a temporary cut in excise duties for diesel products to mitigate inflation.

- *6. Mr Xie Yao Quan: To ask the Minister for Finance in the event of global stagflation, what monetary and fiscal measures will the Government adopt to help (i) businesses, especially SMEs and (ii) low and middle-income Singaporeans.
- *7. Mr Edward Chia Bing Hui: To ask the Minister for Finance what are the potential measures, in the form of reduced petrol duties or road tax rebates, that the Ministry will consider to assist commercial vehicle owners and private hire vehicle owners in helping to cushion the sharp rise in petrol prices amidst ongoing volatility.
- *8. Mr Ang Wei Neng: To ask the Minister for Finance in the light of the persistent high inflation rate in recent months, whether the Ministry will consider (i) releasing the $100 CDC voucher to each Singapore household by early second quarter of 2022 and (ii) giving a second round of CDC vouchers in 2022 to better assist Singaporeans.
- *9. Mr Chua Kheng Wee Louis: To ask the Minister for Finance (a) in the last five years, what is the annual amount of excise duties derived from petrol and diesel sold to end consumers; and (b) whether the Government can reduce excise duties for intermediate grade petrol and diesel in view of high fuel prices today.
- *10. Mr Liang Eng Hwa: To ask the Minister for Finance given the further upward costs pressure as a result of the Russia-Ukraine conflict (a) whether the Government will consider revising the Households Support Package that was announced in Budget 2022; (b) what are the timelines for the payouts from the various Government packages to support families; and (c) whether the timelines of these payouts can be adjusted in view of the escalating inflationary environment.
- *11. Ms Carrie Tan: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Committee Against Profiteering (CAP) has considered the extent of increases to food prices that is reasonable to expect in view of the cost of gas and energy, and in tandem with the Progressive Wage Model; (b) if so, what is the extent; and (c) whether the CAP will be providing a set of guidelines for consumers on when is it appropriate to report opportunistic price hikes by merchants on everyday items, especially those at coffeeshops and hawker stalls.

- *12. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government has fuel reserves, futures or other instruments to hedge against a sudden and significant spike in fuel prices; (b) how does the Government intend to help local transport operators mitigate the effects of such spikes in fuel prices, especially SMEs that are unable to shift the cost burden to their customers; and (c) how will Singapore manage these knock-on effects on our supply chains and our reputation as a logistics hub.
- *13. Mr Yip Hon Weng: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Ministry monitors the stall rental and utilities rates imposed by food court and coffee shop operators; (b) if so, how many food court and coffee shop operators have raised charges for stall rental or utilities since the beginning of this year; (c) what is the range of price increases; (d) how can stall operators lodge a complaint against the food court and coffee shop operators for unjustified price increases; and (e) how will the Ministry investigate these complaints.
- *14. Ms He Ting Ru: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government has conducted studies to consider the impact of the insolvency of previous electricity retailers on the cost of living for Singaporeans; and (b) if so, whether the Ministry will release the findings of such studies.
- *15. Ms He Ting Ru: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Ministry is tracking the severity of shrinkflation and how widespread the practice is; and (b) whether this will be one of the business practices considered by the Committee Against Profiteering.
- *16. Mr Murali Pillai: To ask the Minister for Law whether he can provide an update on the Government's study to enhance criminal legal aid and, in particular, to consider the feasibility of setting up a Public Defender's Office.
- *17. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Prime Minister in view of the rising global interest rate outlook (a) what are the risks to the household debt situation in Singapore; (b) what is the proportion of mortgages accounting for household debt over the past five years; and (c) what measures are in place to reduce the build-up of highly leveraged households and the associated vulnerabilities.
- *18. Mr Desmond Choo: To ask the Prime Minister in view of the short-term interest rates raised by the US Federal Reserve (a) what is the impact on mortgage rates in Singapore; (b) whether there has been an increase in mortgage delinquency; and (c) what are the plans to educate younger and first-time home buyers on expected higher borrowing costs.

- *19. Mr Liang Eng Hwa: To ask the Minister for Health given that the COVID-19 Omicron variant virus wave has passed its peak (a) whether the Government will review the overall safe management measures; (b) whether the SafeEntry measure still serve its purpose; and (c) whether the one-metre distance requirement at eating places can be relaxed.
- *20. Mr Lim Biow Chuan: To ask the Minister for Health (a) what is the overall cost to businesses to maintain Vaccination-Differentiated Safe Management Measures just to cater to unvaccinated residents; and (b) whether requiring unvaccinated residents to bear their own medical costs will be sufficient deterrence to residents who choose not to be vaccinated.
- *21. Mr Yip Hon Weng: To ask the Minister for Sustainability and the Environment (a) whether the Ministry will consider to streamline the Vaccination-Differentiated Safe Management Measures (VDS) for coffeeshops and canteens to simplify these measures; (b) how many proposals have been received by the Singapore Food Agency (SFA) on the adoption of the new VDS; (c) how long will SFA take to approve the proposals; and (d) how frequently will SFA conduct checks for compliance at approved premises.
- *22. Mr Leon Perera: To ask the Minister for Sustainability and the Environment whether the Ministry will consider (i) easing the vaccination-differentiated safe management measures (VDS) for dining-in at coffee shops and industrial canteens and (ii) providing financial subsidies to help coffee shops and industrial canteens with compliance costs related to VDS.

- *24. Mr Ang Wei Neng: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry in light of the Energy Market Authority's Energy 2050 Committee Report (a) how will Singapore prepare itself to generate 10% of the country's energy needs using nuclear energy in a safe and reliable manner by 2050; and (b) what steps will Singapore take to assure our neighbours that the use of nuclear energy in Singapore will not impact the environment unfavourably with sufficient safeguards.
- *25. Ms Poh Li San: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry since the Government's pre-feasibility study on nuclear technologies in 2012, what are the technological improvements made in this area that now render the technologies potentially fit and safe for deployment, especially given the high population density in Singapore.

- *26. Mr Liang Eng Hwa: To ask the Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what are the prospects of next-generation technologies being used to tap on geothermal energy and nuclear energy for Singapore's future energy supply mix; and (b) what are the challenges that need to be overcome.
- *27. Mr Pritam Singh: To ask the Minister for Manpower (a) whether the Ministry is looking into new strategies to encourage younger Singaporeans to take up trade jobs such as licensed electricians and plumbers, amongst others; and (b) whether it is the Ministry's assessment that a larger Singapore core can be built up in such jobs in the short- to medium-term.
- *28. Mr Zhulkarnain Abdul Rahim: To ask the Minister for Home Affairs in light of the recent sword and knife-related crimes (a) what are the steps and measures taken to protect the public in terms of awareness and emergency preparedness; and (b) whether there can be a blanket ban for the possession of a knife, razor or other sharp objects in any schools, public or commercial premises.
- *29. Mr Zhulkarnain Abdul Rahim: To ask the Minister for Home Affairs whether there are legislative measures to help the Police target and guide individuals, who are at risk of being drawn into knife-related crimes due to certain mental or other conditions, to set them on a positive path similar to the recent Knife Crime Prevention Orders piloted in the UK.
- *30. Mr Mohd Fahmi Bin Aliman: To ask the Minister for Home Affairs (a) what is the current adoption rate of outcome-based contracting (OBC) for public sector security service buyers; (b) whether the Ministry tracks the adoption rate for private sector security service buyers; (c) whether these adoption rates have met the Ministry's targets; and (d) what is the plan to further increase the adoption rate of OBC in the public and private sectors.
- *31. Mr Mohd Fahmi Bin Aliman: To ask the Minister for Home Affairs (a) whether the Ministry is promoting the adoption of outcome-based contracting for the procurement of security services by managing agents appointed by annually-elected MCST Councils, given that short contracting periods remain a key impediment to the adoption of technologically-enabled security solutions at private residential estates; and (b) if so, what more can be done to further promote this.
- *32. Mr Gan Thiam Poh: To ask the Minister for Manpower in view of the disruption due to the COVID-19 pandemic and Singapore's ageing population (a) whether there is a need to review the projected number of migrant domestic workers (MDWs) for the next 10 years; and (b) what are the lessons learnt in terms of managing the supply of MDWs.
